BAY ST. LOUIS, MISS., AUGUST 20TH, 1921.

TONIGHT AND TOMORROW.

No benefit in Bay St. Louis has ever attracted the interest of the general public as the HOO-BOO-LOO FESTIVAL for this SATURDAY NIGHT and TOMORROW (SUNDAY) NIGHT. The management intend to raise no less than $4,000. Help them do it!

30TH YEAR—NO. 35.

CITY SCHOOLS OPEN SEPT. 5TH.

Board of School Trustees, City of Bay St. Louis, officially announce the opening of the city schools, white and colored, on MONDAY, SEPT. 5TH. It is urged that every boy and girl REGISTER ON THE OPENING DAY.

SUBSCRIPTION $2.00 PER YEAR ALWAYS IN ADVANCE.

STEPHENS GIVES AN OUTLINE; PLATFORM

WITHDRAWAL OF FORMER GOVERNOR THEO. G. BILBO NOW LEAVES FORMER SENATOR JAMES K. VARDAMAN AND MISS BELLE KEARNEY IN THE FIELD—CONGRESSMAN STEPHENS' ANNOUNCEMENT CARRIES PLATFORM.

JACKSON, August 15.—State-wide interest has been stirred by ex-Congressman Hubert D. Stephens of north Mississippi in his announcement as a candidate for the United States Senate to succeed Senator John Sharp Williams, which was formally made here August 11th. The withdrawal of former Governor Theo. G. Bilbo was another interesting and recent development, he having decided to do so in the event the ex-congressman became a candidate. Former United States Senator J. K. Vardaman and Miss Belle Kearney are now opponents of Mr. Stephens.

Mr. Stephens' Announcement.

The platforms of the two older candidates are generally well-known throughout Mississippi. Ex-congressman Stephens' announcement at Philadelphia, Miss., among other things stated:

"I have always voted against appropriations for a large standing army and navy. I would cease spending the millions of the people's money for great armies and battleships, and give more encouragement to those who labor in the field, in the factory and on the railroad. I would mold fewer bullets and produce more of the comforts of life. I would build fewer battleships and erect more school houses and good roads. I would spend less money for destruction and more construction."

Against Extravagance.

"In this connection I will say that I always opposed extravagant expenditures of the people's money; that my vote always was in favor of economy was proper. Believing that the best interests of the country demanded appropriation for the benefit of the farm and the improvement of agriculture conditions. I have always favored appropriations for those purposes. It gave me pleasure to vote money for river and harbor improvements, for good roads, rural routes, (CONTINUED TO PAGE TWO)

ASHER-ROHMER.

Marriage of Prominent and Popular Young Couple Occurred Sunday at Home of Bride Sunday Afternoon, in Union Street.

A quiet, but very pretty wedding took place Sunday afternoon at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Rohmer, in Union Street, when their daughter, Helen, was married to Mr. Charles Asher, of this county. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Carey, assistant pastor of the church of Our Lady of the Gulf. Mr. and Mrs. Asher have gone to Logtown, where Mr. Asher is a valued employee of the H. S. Weston Lumber Company, in their mercantile department, where they will reside.

The bride is the charming young daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Rohmer, attractive personality and gifted with many accomplishments.

The groom is well-known over Hancock, a son of one of the oldest and best known families in the county. He is popularly known and an exemplary young man; held in high esteem by all who know him.

Mr. and Mrs. Asher have the congratulations of all who know them for a long and happy life.

DATES OF CHURCH FAIR CHANGED TO SATURDAY AND SUNDAY.

In order to better suit the conveniences of the public, the big two-night fair for the benefit of the church of Our Lady of the Gulf, to have been held last night and tonight (Friday and Saturday), will be held tonight and tomorrow night instead (Saturday and Sunday.) This will meet the approval of one and all directly and indirectly concerned, and will result in a larger attendance on both nights. While there will be a large attendance tonight, it is expected that tomorrow night (Sunday) will exceed all records. The attractions of both nights will be worthy of one's attendance, and no one will fail to attend.

The benefit is for the purpose of wiping away the remainder of the debt overhanging the church in order that the work of completing the beautiful edifice might be resumed.

FULLER BULL TELLS FRIEND HOGAN OF THE CONCESSIONS AT HOO-BOO-LOO FAIR.

Mr. Red Hogan, New York City, My Carmine Pal.

Do you know, Red, you come close as the bark to not being on the receiving end of last week's note? Sure did, Old Sox, if the Capt. of the Linnetype hadn't a known that you was all cocked and primed, and if he hadn't burnt late juice—well that letter would a been listed with the horses at the bottom of the notation—so Red, take your lid off to Capt. Linnetype.

Red, this hamlet's gone clean into the bag of the Hoo-Boo-Loos—look, stock and barrel! Why its even got on the pug line. Bo, I heard a jane yell out to a jell: "Say Clarence, do you know who?" "Do I know who's who?" "No. Who?" "Why, Hoo-Boo-Loos, of course!" This same fish goes down to the post office, sticks his mug into the grill and pokes this at the Capt. of the letters. "Say, Mister, got anything for Lou?" The Master of the Missives gave Clarence the once-over. Like he was wonderin' where it broke out from, and says with dignity, "There's a bunch o' loos in this bur, what one do you mean?" "Why?" returns innocent Clarence. "Why? Hoo-Boo-Loos, of course!" Just 'bout that time some feller yells out, "Git fer home Bruno," and Clarence fades.

So, bo, it won't do to ask any questions this week, specially if you put WHO to it.

Red, the Grand Kak'kak of the Hoo's, what's referen' the main bout—him, what's so Ernest? About it all—has changed the date to Sat. and Sun. the prelim start off at 5 of the P. M., and goes continuously till the crowd evaporates on its own strength—there will be an intermission from about midnight of the P. M., Sat. till 2 of the P. M. on Sun. when the main bout starts the preface for the lops and a general wrestling match which will include everybody what ain't excluded and every bo, it's a throw for his kale.

The M. D.'s what preside over the germs in this burg all asfied me to stake that no none will need leave the grounds on account of a over supply, for they'll have a whole set of pumps on hand what can handle any old thing—from a peanut to a cocoa-nut. Any kind of operation can transpire right on said campus regardless and the proceeds will be diverted to the diversion of the diversifiers—then if you happen to get a cough there'll be oodles of sympathizers what will insist upon being also present to see that you cough up your weekly allowance and a little I. O. U. on what's coming later. Kid Sistrunk says that as he's Secretary he wants to be there when the cough drops. Oh! good morning, Lozenge!

So, Mister Hogan, you can imagine that the aforesaid scrimmage will make the Argonne resemble an argument in the asylum for the deaf and dumb.

Fontaine Fox is goin' to loan all his family for the main bout to the viz: The Skipper will have the corner Gro. Katrinka will have over at the Lemonade gully. The Professor will tabulate his tabules in the Pax East Tent. Vernon McNutt will tend to the nuts and nutcases at the ball-throwing contest where they will try to bust the nut of the celebrated Tar Baby of Nicaise avenue. Tom-boy Taylor will keep the ice-cream cold and Edith will be found among the other dolls. The balance of the Fox tribe will dish out tickets on the Jacks.

Next week, sometime, Red, theys goin' to be a meetin' here of every Irishman and every man woman who sympathizes with the Mick. It don't matter a dern if you're a Mick or a Scandinavian, as long as you're ready to give the glad hand to the Cause of Ould Erin, you're welcome to jine the Sinn Feiners of Bay St. Louis. There'll be a bunch up at the court house, bo, and before the curtain drops every mother's son and daughter will acknowledge St. Patrick as their grandfather. They hain't no religion in this, its only Ireland and for Ireland. Anybody what's got a drop of freeman's blood in his make-up will raise a hand.

Yours and Ireland's FULLER BULL.

Puff paste must be rapidly made in a cool room.

Finely chopped pimento may be added to fish cutlet mixture.

WHAT DOES IRELAND WANT?

What is Ireland fighting for? Is this tangled question a religious issue? Is it a domestic affair? Is Ireland a nation? Should she be independent of should she not? Come, and hear this question fairly and fully presented at the meeting to be held at the court house on Saturday and Sunday.

BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION CELEBRATES

ELEVENTH ANNIVERSARY MONDAY NIGHT WITH BANQUET AT ITS HALL IN MONTI BUILDING—SPREAD WAS A SPLENDID ONE AND ATTENDED BY MEMBERS AND FEW INVITED GUESTS—SEVERAL ADDRESSES DELIVERED.

Of all the local organizations there is none more popular and in a more flourishing condition than the Bay Benevolent Association, which celebrated the eleventh year of its existence Monday night.

The occasion was duly celebrated with a splendid spread in the form of a banquet at the association's hall over the Monti building, corner of Union and Hancock streets. A menu of unusual quality and proportions was served. At eight o'clock the members and guests began to arrive and by nine the feast was spared in any particular. It was fitting of the occasion and reflected credit on those who had it in charge. Paul Surcouf as chef, distinguished himself again. The feast lasted until a late hour, and during the evening several addresses of felicitations were delivered. Among the speakers were: Messrs. E. J. Cox, T. E. Keller, W. H. Starr, Leo W. Seal, Martin Blanchard, E. Van Whitfield.

Members of the Maccabee Band delivered several selections during the evening, adding largely to the success of the affair.

The publisher of The Echo regrets exceedingly that a previous engagement precluded this paper being represented at the auspicious occasion, and we wish to say the special invitation was duly appreciated even though we were not present.

The Bay Benevolent Association was organized by a number of local gentlemen purely as a local affair, with no affiliations with the head or supreme branch of any organization. The benefits are many and substantial. Members pay a monthly stipend. In return the services of a doctor, and cash sick benefit is paid the patient all during the time of illness and convalescence. In a word the association gives the members much in return for little. It has a large membership and a drive is to be made wherein it is expected to run the membership up.

It is also noteworthy that while the Bay Benevolent Association has dispensed much benefit and aid, it has been beneficiaries of its material bounty, its treasury is in a flourishing condition. The outlook for a larger membership is promising, and in time the organization will take its rank with those of the State.

In the last month automobile industries in Cleveland have increased their working forces 25 per cent.

DEATH OF MRS. M. A. FORWOOD.

Mrs. Mary A. Wheelwright, widow of Dr. Henry S. Forwood, and the mother of Mr. Will Forwood, died at the home of her son on the beach front at 3:10 o'clock Monday morning, August 15th, 1921, aged 78 years. Mrs. Wheelwright had been ailing for sometime and her death was not unexpected. The remains were taken to New Orleans, the former home, and funeral held Tuesday morning, interment at Metairie cemetery.

During the year 1921 it is estimated that China's cotton spindles will have increased to 2,225,000.

JOS. O. MAUFFRAY ON TO RECOVERY.

Returned Home Saturday Evening From New Orleans, Where Recently Underwent Major Surgical Operation.

Joseph O. Mauffray returned Saturday evening from New Orleans, where for seventeen days he was in Touris Infirmary and where he underwent a surgical operation, as already stated in these columns.

Mr. Mauffray is at his home in Main street, where friends have been visiting him throughout the day all the week. He is up and sitting around, gaining his former strength back rapidly and will soon be back to his former good health. This will indeed be good news to the many who have been solicitous as to Mr. Mauffray's recovery and concerned as to his condition. It is hoped that within the next few days he will be out again on the streets even though not very active for the time being.

PASS CHRISTIAN "SHORT."

The matter of running short is not confined to individuals only, but towns, states and nations sometimes grow to feel the sting of want. Pass Christian at this writing is in financial distress and will have to make a touch to keep the wheels of government in motion until such time as the amount needed is not much as money is measured in municipal terms, some $3500, being sufficient to keep the ship of state afloat until the treasury is again made plenteous by patriotic tax payers. A petition will be circulated asking the authority of the tax payers to negotiate a loan of $3,500, and the belief at the Pass is that enough signers will be secured to put the loan over. It is a case of getting the money on the city employees going without their salaries. A similar petition was circulated recently to secure the loan of $2,000 to complete the extension to the water works system. Gulfport Herald.

HOME BREW ALLOWED BY AMENDMENT.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—Any householder could have his home brewed under interpretations placed upon an amendment to the Willis-Campbell beer bill approved today by the house.

The amendment adopted as a substitute for a senate provision would require federal agents to have warrants before entering homes in the search of liquor. It provides, however, that no warrant shall be issued for search of a home "unless there is reason to believe such dwelling is used as a place in which liquor is manufactured for sale or sold."

Representative Fields, Democrat, Kentucky, declaring the house amendment would virtually sanction "home brew" provided it was not made to be sold, attempted to have the words, "for sale" stricken out, but his motion was rejected 90 to 54.

Representative Volstead, Minnesota, Republican, author of the original prohibition act, favored the house substitute as adopted. He declared later it would not change the policy of the prohibition enforcement bureau in reference to home brewing. "No attempt of late has been made on orders from Washington," he said, "to prohibit the home manufacture of potent beverages for home use."

Pleading for a tight ban on home brew, Mr. Fields declared that "if you say a man can rig up a distillery in his home you kill the Volstead act."

MRS. GREEN DIES AT GULFPORT SUNDAY

WAS MOTHER OF JNO. A. GREEN, RESIDENT REPRESENTATIVE LOUISVILLE & NASHVILLE RAILROAD COMPANY FOR OVER FORTY YEARS—DIED AT GULFPORT, FUNERAL IN BAY ST. LOUIS SUNDAY, NATIVE OF IRELAND; AGE 90.

Mrs. Margaret Green, mother of John A. Green, well-known resident representative of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, in Bay St. Louis for over forty years, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. A. Neno, at Gulfport, Sunday afternoon at 12:40 o'clock, August 14, 1921.

Mrs. Green, a native of Ireland, was 90 years of age at the time of her demise, and had been a resident of the Gulf Coast for over sixty years. She had spent much of her time in Bay St. Louis visiting at the home of her son, but due to her advanced age, had not visited here for the past eight years. However, those who knew her, remember her well, and most pleasantly for the many traits of character and virtues which her Maker so lavishly endowed her with. She had been comparatively well during the years of her later age until about a month since when she was taken ill and began to fail until the inevitable. A Christian in the true sense of the word, she practiced all the terms implies and her long life was replete with innumerable deeds that characterized her long and beautiful life.

The remains were carried to this city Monday morning, accompanied by friends and relatives, and met here by a large number of Bay St. Louis friends of the family, although it was comparatively little known that she had passed away and that the funeral was to be held in this city. From the railroad depot the funeral cortege wended its way to St. Mary's Cemetery, where a newly-made underground vault received the remains. The number of floral offerings accompanying her was unusually large and the newly-made grave was literally covered with the choicest of flowers. It was a beautiful tribute of loving tenderness and expression. These came from all over wherever she was known.

Mrs. Green is survived by one son, John A. Green; five daughters, Mrs. M. A. Neno, Mrs. J. J. Dowling and Mrs. E. E. Smith, of Gulfport; Mrs. T. T. Payment, of Jackson, Miss.; Mrs. John Meyer, of Mobile, Ala.; twenty-four grandchildren and nine great grand children. To these and to the many friends her memory will ever live, for she was not only a tender and devoted mother who lived in the very affections of her children, but a friend who was ever true and constant.

The relatives have the deepest sympathy of the community, even though she had long past her allotted biblical span of years, had lived her long and useful life, and has gone to eternal reward. She will be missed by those who were closest to her, and by those who knew her best.

MISS YVONNE LACOSTE ENTERTAINS AT FANCY DRESS PARTY.

A very pretty and attractive affair and one at which the young guests enjoyed themselves in a most thorough fashion, was the fancy dress party given Saturday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lacoste on the beach front, on the occasion of the birthday of their charming little daughter, Miss Yvonne.

The costumes were varied in design and color, all beautiful and the sight was most pleasing. Various pastimes were indulged in and a number of games, etc., entertained the little guests until a late hour.

Mrs. Lacoste was assisted in entertaining by Miss Evelyn Lacoste and Miss Ninon Mares, the latter a house guest from New Orleans.

The refreshments were bountiful and served frequently during the evening.

Among those present were: Misses Ida May Glover, of New Orleans; Myrtle and Elvira Block, Amanda Hickey, Bootsie King, Julia and Yvonne Menon, Elodie Grato, of New Orleans; Gertrude and Antoinette Partridge, and Masters Emmett Charbonnet, Maurice Farnet, of New Orleans; Jules and Ferdinand Menou Billy King, Harry and Anthony Glover, Joe and Sam Hickey, James Vines, of New Orleans; Reocum Grato, Winfield Partridge, E. J. and Bobbie Lacoste.

You should not forget to see "Heliotrope" a companion picture to "Humoresque," at the A. & G. theatre next Saturday night.

DISPOSITION OF SEIZED LIQUOR

Attorney General Daugherty Curious to Know What's Being Done With Vast Quantities Taken.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—Attorney General Daugherty has started an investigation to learn what becomes of liquor seized by government officials.

In reviewing many prohibition cases which come to his desk, Mr. Daugherty said he had begun to wonder what became of the vast quantities of alcoholic beverages seized by the government in the prosecution of bootleggers. While it was the department's duty to attend to the prosecution of liquor law violators, he declared he had become interested in the possibility of putting condemned liquors to some practical use and at the same time to save the heavy warehouse bills.

Seized liquors, Mr. Daugherty said, could be disposed of for non-beverage purposes to hospitals or the alcohol might be abstracted and used commercially. Mr. Daugherty said he did not know how much liquor was stored by the government in different places, though it had been reported there were supplies valued at between $5,000,000 and $6,000,000 at non-beverage places in New York City alone. Attention was directed by Prohibition Commissioner Haynes to the practice of certain proprietors of bonded warehouses and bonded storerooms of removing wine from the bonded premises for the use of themselves and their families without permits and for beverage purposes. In a letter to all federal agents, he declared that all such offenses would be severely dealt with in the future.

BLIND MAN KILLS SLEEPING WOMAN AND CLUBS LITTLE CHILDREN.

EL PASO, Tex., Aug. 17.—Ramón Ramirez, 20, a blind man, was arrested yesterday and charged with murder, when deputy sheriffs found him sleeping in a shed half a mile from the house in which Mrs. Conrado Alazar, 32, was murdered and her children, Conrado, 4; Ophelia, 7; and Fannie, 8 were clubbed and seriously injured Monday night.

"Yes, I killed them," was Ramirez's statement, according to deputy sheriff John Boone. "I wanted to kill them all. It would be better for them."

Blood was on Ramirez's face and hands the officers said.

Mrs. Alazar was sleeping with her 18 months' old baby when attacked. Her husband went to Tularosa, N. M., yesterday to hunt for work.

MISS ROBERTSON'S VIEW ON WOMAN-DELEGATE TO CONFERENCE.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—Speaking further her view as to the appointment of a woman on the American delegation for the coming arms conference Congresswoman Alice Robertson said yesterday:

"Show me a woman in the United States who is qualified and I might urge her appointment."

She added that in order to qualify on a woman not only would have to be an international lawyer versed in diplomatic practice, familiar with foreign languages and conditions, and have an assured social standing and wide international acquaintance, but would also need the faculty of listening great deal and saying little."

Mr. Stoddard, late of the U. S. Naval Air Service, announces in the advertising columns of The Echo that he will have his hydro-plane in Bay St. Louis, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, August 25th, 26th and 27th, and will make frequent flights from the Amusement Co. pier. Parties desiring to fly can make arrangements. The occasion might not present itself again.

GULFPORT TO WAGE WAR ON ARGENTINE ANTS.

A petition signed by over 150 Gulfport citizens has been filed with the Gulfport City Commissioners asking them to cooperate with the State and Government officials in exterminating the Argentine ant which is appearing in Gulfport in considerable numbers.

The Gulfport officials have expressed themselves as being willing to cooperate by furnishing the small amount of money necessary to carry a campaign against this insect pest in the city and it is thought that the exterminating work will begin in the near future.

During the war the average brick laid by bricklayers was 900 a day; now it is claimed that this has been increased to between 1200 and 1500 a day.

MANIERI ENTERS THE RING; NOW TRAINING

WELL-KNOWN BAY ST. LOUIS AND CHAMPION OF THE BRITISH FLEET IN TRAINING AT GULFPORT UNDER "BOBO" O'BRIEN, OF BAY ST. LOUIS. CONFIDENT HE WILL WIN PUGILIST FAME IS BEING EXPRESSED BY SPORTSMEN.

Although his last attempts were not successful in getting the decision notwithstanding he is a good fighter, many friends and admirers of Russell Manieri, the Bay St. Louis youthful athlete and champion of the British fleet during the war, are looking forward to and with much interest in his determination to enter the ring again and to "come back."

Russell is an athlete of ability, and with the training that is proposed to give him, it is expected he is going to develop into a formidable opponent in the prize ring. At present he is at Gulfport training under the guidance of "Bobo" O'Brien, of Bay St. Louis, for a coming bout. The Gulfport Daily Herald has this to say in its issue of Monday afternoon:

"Russell Manieri, the well-known coast fighter who is making Gulfport his home, will make another attempt to win pugilistic fame in the prize ring. He has been taken in charge by 'Bobo' O'Brien, a New Orleans sportsman, who believes the Coast youth has the making of a good fighter. 'What Manieri needs,' he has quoted as saying, 'is a lot of experience, and I propose to see that he gets it.' One of the first things he will do is to give the youth a work out with Mike Gibbons when he comes down to train for his fight with 'Happy' Littleton which is scheduled to take place in New Orleans next month. Gibbons, as is known, has been matched to meet Carpenter in January for the world's light heavy weight championship. Mr. O'Brien believes that a workout of this kind will be worth a great deal in the way of adding to the knowledge of Manieri's ring generalship. Mr. O'Brien is not worried over the Coast boy's hitting ability, as he knows he is a hard hitter with either hand and stacks up pretty well as a boxer. After his work out with Gibbons he will be ready to meet the average opponent in the latter part of September or first of October in New Orleans. His first opponent will likely be Merriello or some good fighter from the East. Meanwhile Manieri will continue his training at the Central Fire Station, this city, every afternoon at 5 o'clock, and his friends are cordially invited.

GIVES BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR GRANDSON.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Burns gave a delightful birthday party Saturday evening at the family home, "Laura-ville," in compliment to their grandson, Louis Henry Burns Graham, on the occasion of his fifth birthday. The party was given in the beautiful gardens of the spacious premises, and was well attended, the party proving most enjoyable to all who were privileged to attend, twenty-five in all. The handsome little fellow, and his charming little sister are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Burns' daughter, Mrs. Graham, and are the idols of their grandparents.

GROUND BROKEN FOR GULFPORT HOSPITAL.

Worked to Be Rushed on $90,000 King's Daughters Infirmary.

Ground has been broken for the new King's Daughters Hospital, which will be erected at Gulfport, at a cost of approximately $90,000, by Contractor Rebusan, of Jackson, upon which work will be rushed to have it completed at the earliest possible time. The hospital building is said to be, when constructed, one of the most modern in southern portion of Mississippi.

FATHER TIME SURPRISES LOGTOWN.

Thursday night, August 11, 1921, the little town of Logtown was surprised to learn that Old Father Time had played an astonishing trick on a portion of Logtown's population.

The little folks grew up and two of the popular little ones were married at a Tom Thumb Wedding given under the direction of Miss Annie Johnson.

The couple was little Miss Ruth Marques and Master Austin Baxter, Master Woodrow Norton officiating
at the ceremony.

Later in the evening the "flapper" set turned back Time's wheels about eight years, and were entertained at the residence of Miss Mattie Townes at a Baby Party.

The young ladies were all cunningly and "becomingly" dressed as children and carried their parts to perfection.

The party was a birthday affair
given in honor of Miss Dorothy Weston. The evening was pleasantly spent in childhood games and contests. Chief among them was a "doll dressing" contest which afforded much laughter to all.

Those present were: Misses Dorothy Weston, Bessie Fountain, Alice Fountain, Alma Parker, Mabel Fountain, Diana Evans, Nettie Holleman, Martha Hall, Adele Casanova and Mattie Townes.

One of the largest damage suits filed in a local court in some time is that of Mr. and Mrs. I. Johnson and their minor children against the Gulfport Grocery Co., in which they ask damages to the extent of $50,- 000 for the death of their five-year-old child, Inger Johnson, who was killed in this city several weeks ago by a heavy motor truck belonging to the company.

CONGRESSMAN PAUL B. JOHN- SON WANTS RECORD STRAIGHT

As a Matter of Fact Only Few Women Present When Vote Was Taken.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 10, 1921.
Editor Sea Coast Echo,
Bay St. Louis, Mississippi.
Dear Mr. Morton:

I read in your paper of August 6 an account sent out by the cigarette interests purporting to be an account of what took place at the hearings before the committee which had under consideration a bill introduced by myself to prevent women from smoking cigarettes in public in Washington.

The report states that 25 women voted, 24 against the bill. As a matter of fact, there were only a few women present, most of them were cigarette smokers, and only 5 voted.
In order that you may get the truth about the matter I am sending you the hearings before the committee.
These hearings have not been finished and the Committee has not voted upon the bill.

The cigarette interests have been very busy getting out propaganda against the bill. The proposed legislation is very popular except with the cigarette interests.

I write this in order that the facts may be given to the people through your valuable paper.

Cordially and sincerely,
PAUL B. JOHNSON

ANOTHER HOSPITALITY STORY.

"Of course," said the night-watchman of the Hospitality hotel, "I knew you were coming here." He spoke to the boy and girl adventurers who were on their way to the House of Secrets. There they would learn that all the Secrets helped each other and that the great one of all was the Secret of Brotherhood. Without playing fair with everyone else no one could be a success, and no one who thought only of himself or herself could be a success—whether that person was old or young or middle-aged.

"You were told about this place before you came here with Master Thoughtfulness, but the people from outside I made come in did not know about us. They were passing and were tired and weary. They had had a long journey, but they didn't want to bother us."

"They looked at the many lights,
but they said they were feeling tired and only wanted to know where they could have their supper and then a night's rest."

"I had a hard time telling them that the Hospitality hotel wasn't only for folks who were not weary. Gracious, Sir Hearty Cordiality, as inn keeper, or hotel keeper, and myself as the night-watchman, could never endure having a place where only those who felt entertaining and bright could come. That would be selfish of us, and we don't like selfishness. We really, really don't."

He shook his head hard as he said this.

The boy and the girl looked at the night-watchman's night-stick which had surprised them so. They had no idea that his night-stick would be anything but a stout stick to beat bur-

"Night Watchman's Night-Stick," glared with. And instead, they had read upon it these words written in large letters:

"Hospitality we love to show.
So stop and rest ere forward you go."

The night-watchman had explained that the letters even stood out as he waved it about in the night for the lights from the hotel knew just how to shine upon it.

They finished a very fine banquet when Sir Hearty Cordiality said to the newcomers, "Now you may rest, for you surely want that more than anything. It is a pleasure to have you here. Goodnight."

Then he turned to the boy and girl.
"As you like to see things and as neither of you look tired or sleepy, though I suppose you should, would you care to accept the brownie's invitation to see over the hotel?"

"Of course the boy and the girl did want to see all over and they went off with a brownie after they had wished Sir Hearty Cordiality, a good night's rest and had thanked him for his kindness. He had given them each a hand shake which had been quite wonderful. The boy and the girl spoke to each other about it as they were waiting for the brownie to get the keys.

"He just shook hands as if he really and truly were glad to see us," said
the girl. "It made me feel so happy!"

Just then the little brownie came along with many keys.

"It's not," she said, "that we keep anything locked up here. Everything is open for all of us, and everyone who really wants the keys can have them. But I wanted to explain to you how in the first place of all, creatures who come to the Hospitality hotel and those who wish to take away a photograph of Sir Hearty Cordiality can do so."

"Oh," said the boy, "we forgot all about thanking him for the meals that were sent to us from here when we were on our journey."

"I'll tell him about it and all the rest too," said the brownie.

"But come, we must look around for really it is late, very late, and you must go journeying again tomorrow."

The brownie took them through many rooms and through great halls.
She showed them views from high towers and she showed them the great kitchens. She showed them the wonderful vegetable garden with the aid of a little light she carried which she flashed from time to time when they were walking out of doors and they saw the many twinkling lights that shone from the Hospitality hotel.

spection of milk cows, milk and cream, making the inspection compulsory, creating the office of milk and cattle inspector and making it a misdemeanor for a violation of the provisions of this ordinance.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Bay St. Louis that all persons, selling, giving away, or exchanging milk shall have their milk cows inspected by the City Inspector once each year to ascertain if the cow has the disease known as Tuberculosis or any other infectious or contagious diseases.

SECTION 2. That no person shall sell, give away or exchange milk for use, from any cow without first having a certificate showing that such cow or cows have been inspected or inspected by the City Inspector and the said cow or cows are free from Tuberculosis and all other infectious or contagious diseases.

SECTION 3. That all persons selling milk shall have their places where milking is done or the milk cows are kept, in a clean and sanitary condition and no person shall sell, give away, or exchange milk to any one for consumption without first obtaining a certificate from the City Inspector, that their place, grounds, building or dairy, where the milking is done, or the cow or cows are kept, is in a clean and sanitary condition.

SECTION 4. All cows inspected shall be appropriately marked or branded by the City Inspector.

SECTION 5. It shall be unlawful for any person to sell, give away or exchange milk taken from a cow infected with tuberculosis or any other infectious or contagious disease.

SECTION 6. Persons owning a milk cow or cows shall pay the City Inspector two dollars for each milk cow inspected.

SECTION 7. The Mayor shall appoint a City Milk and Cattle Inspector and his appointment shall be ratified by the Board of Mayor and Aldermen. The term of office of City Inspector shall be one year.

SECTION 8. All persons violating any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars, or sentenced to serve not more than thirty days in jail, or both such fine and imprisonment.

SECTION 9. That this ordinance take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and each person shall be notified and given notice.

Approved in open Board this 6th day of August, 1921.

S. J. LADNER,
Secretary.

FIRE INSURANCE TRUSTS IN NEW YORK AND MISSISSIPPI

This Wicked Trust and Combine Brought to Its Knees By a New York Legislative Investigating Committee.

State Revenue Agent Stokes V. Robertson Scores Before Supreme Court of Mississippi.

Editorial Denunciations of Fire Trust From Great New York Dailies and Glance at the Mississippi Situation.

Who Can Look at the Hand of Undermyer in the Cartoon Below Without Thinking of Stokes Robertson?

THE FALSE FRONT
Harding in the Brooklyn Eagle.

REVENUE AGENT SCORES IN COURTS.

The Jackson correspondent of the Commercial Appeal says in the opinions handed down by the supreme court in the case against the fire insurance companies by State Revenue Agent Robertson, now pending before Chancellor Stricker, that "the revenue agent scored on every point presented to the court. It was held that the revenue agent had the right to bring the anti-trust suit; that it was proper for the court to appoint the receivers to collect in the garnished funds; that the Lever act did not suspend the state anti-trust laws; the one-year statute of limitations prohibiting suits on penal statutes after one year did not apply to the state because the suit was a civil suit and the statute does not run against the state in civil actions. Numerous other material points were decided."

NEW YORK PRESS EXPRESSIONS.

The New York fire insurance trust, through Mr. Undermyer before the Lockwood legislative investigating committee, has been brought to the mourner's bench; it is or its knees.—New York Daily World.

The New York fire insurance trust, according to Mr. Undermyer, is one of the most despot, cruel, rock-ribbed combines in the United States.—New York Daily Herald.

Through these reforms, a number of dailies note, fire insurance policy holders will profit to the extent of one hundred and thirty million dollars.—Literary Digest.

No chapter in the history of the pillage of the public which Mr. Undermyer is bringing out has contained cleverer precepts in the art of fleecing and profiteering.—New York Daily Times.

These insurance conspirators should wear prison stripes.—New York Daily American.

MISSISSIPPI PEOPLE APPROVE LAW ENFORCEMENT.

What has become of the bunch of Mississippi newspapers that attempted to hound Stokes Robertson out of the state when he first filed his suit against the foreign fire insurance companies for violations of the anti-trust law? The violating companies, that assumed a supremely arrogant and defiant attitude at first, soon realized the weakness of their guilty position and fled the state; and the papers that took up their fight against the interest of the people, have ere this time seen a light that led them out of the dark and deceptive paths into which they had fallen and into the bright walks of Right now so brilliantly illuminated by the Torch of Truth, for these papers have become as dumb as oysters, with never a whisper being heard from them in behalf of the flown companies.—The Coast Beacon.

KEEP PUREBRED LIVE STOCK

North Dakota Farmer Eliminates Runts by Liberal Feeding and Proper Management.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

To obtain the most rapid growth and best development of live stock keep good stock, and see that nothing checks its growth from the time it is born. This is the method by which a North Dakota farmer prevents runts among his animals.

In a letter on this subject to the United States Department of Agriculture, which has been studying the causes and prevention of undernourished

There is no excuse for runt pigs, animals, he says, "in the 40 years of my farming and breeding and raising live stock of all kinds I do not remember a runt in any class or breed. I have always been a liberal feeder and a good caretaker. Besides, all stock had access to good, fresh water at all times. With this, in addition to good shelter and ventilation, it seems that don't neglect the details."

A farmer in Vermont writes, "A well-bred animal well cared for will not produce runts. There is absolutely no excuse for one in live stock or poultry. By well-bred live stock I mean strong, healthy stock, well taken care of for several generations, and bred for constitution. This has been my experience from boyhood, first with rabbits and game fowls, and later with sheep, hogs, horses and cattle. An accident to a well-bred and healthy animal will, if the accident occurs before it reaches maturity, affect its size but not its productive capacity. That is, it will not influence its ability to produce such young as it would have had if no accident had occurred. Eliminate all females that are not good mothers, and you will soon stamp the whole herd with constitution. Then with care, which means attention and feed, your runts will fall to materialize."

and for many similar purposes where I thought that conditions would be improved for those who toil. Believing that no greater duty is imposed on the government than to make conditions such that it is impossible for the energetic provident citizen to become the owner of a home. I voted for the farm loan act. It will be a glorious day for the nation when we shall become a nation of home owners. That condition will guarantee that patriotism will not die that love of liberty will not disappear for the human heart, and so that this republic will never perish so long as human government exists. This law will prove of incalculable benefits and reflects great credit on the Democratic administration.

For Lower Freight Rates.

"An important step in helping business generally is a reduction of freight rates. The railroads have taken advantage of the new law under which they were turned back to their owners after the law. I voted against this bill. A reclassification of articles subject to shipment has been made and the rates in many instances are so high as to be absolutely prohibitive. Often the freight charges on a commodity are higher than the price it will bring in the market after reaching its destination. Both producers and consumers are affected by these high rates, and they must be materially reduced.

Tribute to Women.

"We now have a new force in politics. For the first time in the history of our state women will vote. They have always wielded great influence in our state and national life. They are intelligent, patriotic, and are generally on the right side of all public questions, especially those affecting the homelife and the morals of the community. It has been truly said that women makes the church and state. In the entry of woman into politics, she has a wider field to serve the best interests of mankind of the church and the state, and I believe that she will make use of this great opportunity. This, I know, that our civilization can be preserved only by a pure believing self-reliant and enlightende womanhood.

"I am confident that the women of the state will acquaint themselves with public questions that they will give them careful thought. They will approach the matters with open mind. They will not be led astray by any one who teaches doctrines of hate and ill-will, who fills the minds of the people with envy, jealousy and distrust of their fellows."

Workers in the ready-to-wear trade in Paris have started a protest against the change of the Saturday afternoon rest period to Monday.

Not on Friendly Terms

The figure 8 frowns on old-fashioned washday methods. For it is the magic figure in the 1900 Cataract Electric Washer which forces the water back and forth through the clothes, in a perfect figure 8 motion four times oftener than in the ordinary washer.

The swinging wringer is reversible, and also works electrically. The copper tub hasn't one single part in it—nothing to lift out and clean after the wash is finished!

We'd be glad to deliver a 1900 Washer right to your home, and let you try it out. When you have seen what it can do, you may start paying for it on terms to suit your convenience.

PREVENT LOSS BY FREEZING

Tests Being Made by Department of Agriculture With Box Cars for Shipping Apples.

About 1,800 cars of boxed apples shipped in box cars were injured by freezing last year, and the fruit growers sustained a loss of approximately $1,000,000. Because of this and the fact that it seems impossible to secure an adequate amount of refrigerator equipment, the bureau of markets, United States Department of Agriculture, is co-operating with the Wenatchee Valley Traffic association to ascertain whether an ordinary box car can be made to take the place of a refrigerator car when the latter is not obtainable. The tests are being conducted with four box cars, each equipped with a different method of ventilation and a refrigerator car under standard ventilation, to provide a means of comparison.

The first box car has a ventilator cut in each end. The second has the side doors open 8 inches. The third has one side door open with a 6-inch baffle, to shoot the air into the car, and the fourth box car has no ventilation whatever. Delicate equipment records the air currents and temperatures and an accurate chart is kept. In publishing the preliminary report of the experiment, which is not entirely completed, the bureau of markets says that the use of ordinary box-car equipment under any sort of ventilation will not prove satisfactory for shipping boxed apples. Such produce can be safely shipped by box car only when the weather ranges from temperate to cool. The ordinary box car provides no protection whatever against changes in external temperature. The best means of ventilation is to open both doors 8 inches, so fastening them as to prevent robbery.

SIZES OF FRUIT CONTAINERS

Efforts Being Made to Fix Standards Readily Distinguishable by the Average Buyer.

The bureau of markets of the United States Department of Agriculture, in its efforts to bring about standardization of shipping containers for fruits and vegetables, is recommending standard types for three of the most common types of packages. These are the hamper, the round stave basket, and the market basket.

These recommendations provide not only standard sizes but standard dimensions, and it is the intention of the department to fix standards which will be readily distinguishable from each other by the average buyer.

There are at present a great many containers of different sizes which are so nearly the same in appearance that they are a never-ending source of fraud.

By a slight modification in construction it is possible to make a 28-quart hamper which looks so nearly like a full bushel hamper as to deceive the purchaser, who is defrauded out of half a peck.

NITROGEN IS BIG ESSENTIAL

Is Lacking When Strawberry Plants Grow Slowly and When Peaches Show Poor Wood Growth.

When plant growth is poor, as when the new strawberry plants grow slowly and fail to send out vigorous runners, or when blackberries and raspberries, otherwise healthy, fail to renew themselves by sending out new suckers, or when peaches or apples show poor wood growth, or when foliage is weak and poorly colored, there is a shortage of available nitrogen.

Mineral salts are found in green vegetables, fruits, eggs, and milk, are necessary for bone building and blood.

COMFORT FOR SITTING HENS

Give "Broodies" Nests Where They Will Not Be Disturbed During Period of Incubation.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

There are several ways to tell when a hen is becoming broody and wants to sit. Soft, downy feathers are left to the nest; the hen stays on the nest longer when laying. On being approached she will remain on the nest, making a chuckling noise and ruffling her feathers. When one is reasonably sure that the hen is broody, and her breast feels warm to the hand, she is ready to be transferred to the nest previously prepared where she is to sit.

At this time it is advisable to dust the hen thoroughly with insect powder. In doing so hold the hen by the feet with the head down, working the powder well into the feathers, especially those around the vent and under the wings. The sitting hen should be dusted again on or about the eighth day of incubation to be sure that no lice are present when the chicks are hatched. Powder should also be sprinkled in the nest. Sulfurum fluridum may be used for the purpose, say poultry specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture.

When possible the nest should be in some out-of-the-way place, where the hen will not be disturbed. Night is the best time for moving the hen from the regular laying nest to the one she is to sit on. She should be handled carefully. A china egg or two should be placed in the nest, and a board or a covering may be placed over the nest so that the hen will not get off. Toward the end of the second day go quietly to the nest, leave some feed and water, and remove the covering from the top or front of the nest, so that she can come off when ready. The best feed for the sitting hen is whole corn or wheat, or both. Should she return to the nest after feeding, replace the china egg with those to be incubated. The nest should be slightly darkened, as the hen is then not so likely to become restless.

In cool weather it is best not to put more than 10 eggs under a hen. Later in the spring, however, from 12 to 15 eggs can be set, according to the size of the hen.

When several hens are sitting in the same room they should be separated by partitions and should be kept on the nests and allowed to come off only once each day to receive feed and water. A hen that does not voluntarily come off the nest should be taken off. As a rule hens will return to their nests before there is any danger of the eggs chilling, but if they do not go back in half an hour, they should be put back.

Examine and clean the nest carefully, removing any broken eggs and washing those that are soiled. Nesting material soiled by broken straw, hay, or chaff. Nests containing broken eggs soon become infested with mites and lice, which will cause the hens to become uneasy and leave the nest. This is likely to be the cause of the loss of valuable sittings of eggs. When a nest is infested with mites, the hen, if fastened in, will often be found standing over rather than sitting on the eggs.

Eggs laid late in winter or early in spring are frequently infertile, and for that reason it is advisable to set several hens at the same time. After from five to seven days of incubation, the time depending somewhat on the color and thickness of the shells, the eggs should be tested, the infertile and dead-germ eggs removed and the fertile ones returned to the hens. Thus in many instances all the eggs remaining under several hens may be placed under one or two, and the hens from which the eggs were taken may be reset. For instance, 80 eggs are set under 8 hens at the same time, that is, 10 under each hen. At the end of 7 days, at which time the eggs should be tested, it may be found that 10 are infertile or have dead germs, leaving only 20 fertile eggs. These 20 eggs can then be put under the two hens, and a new sitting placed under the third hen.

NEW YORK

Of all America's wonder cities, New York is not only the great center of business, but the Mecca as well for tourists, vacationists and sight-seers.

No other city in all the world attracts so many people in so many walks of life—no other great population center combines so forcefully the appeal to artists, business and professional men, musicians, financiers and the public in general.

New York is only forty hours from New Orleans—thirty-six from Mobile—on the splendid all-steel, all-Pullman, "New York and New Orleans Limited" of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad. This famous train has every modern convenience for the comfort of its patrons; and in addition to shorter schedules, beauty of scenery, convenient hours of arrival and departure, the superior L. & N. dining car service makes the trip most enjoyable.

Ask any L. & N. agent for the booklet "The New York & New Orleans Limited," which describes fully this direct and De Luxe train connecting America's first and second seaports.

THE SEA COAST ECHO.

C. G. Moreau, Editor and Publisher.

Official Journal of the Board of Supervisors, Hancock County, Miss.

Official Journal of Board of Mayor and Aldermen, Bay St. Louis, Miss.

CITY ECHOES.

—FOR SALE: One gentle pony; sound condition; price reasonable. Apply S. J. Ladner, City Hall.

—Misses Julia and Regina Blaize have returned from a short stay with friends at Pass Christian, their former home.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Moreau left this morning for a short vacation trip to Lookout Mountain, (Chattanooga, Tenn.), stopping enroute at Birmingham, Ala., to visit relatives.

—LOST: Between Pearlinton and Bay St. Louis one Ford tire. Under return same to de Montluzin drug store, Bay St. Louis and get reward.

—Mr. and Mrs. George J. Muller and Masters Robert Ashton and Geo. J. Jr., came out from New Orleans Saturday to spend the week-end with relatives. Mr. Muller returned with a considerable catch from the waters of the Jordan.

—E. E. Lucas, well-known and successful real estate specialist, was a business visitor to New Orleans Thursday. He reports the demand for winter rentals active; that there will be many families to spend the winter in Bay St. Louis who did not heretofore reside here.

—Miss Bessie Scalfie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Scalfie, was operated on a few days since for appendicitis, at Tours Infirmary, New Orleans, and reports from her bedside to the effect that she is on the high road to recovery. Mrs. Jos. Hemmersbach, who also went under the knife, at Hotel Dieu, is recovering and doing nicely.

—The activity and demand of improved real estate in Bay St. Louis is best shown by a deal of the present week. Recently C. C. McDonald begun the construction of a spacious and attractive bungalow in Carroll avenue, and while the building is not as yet completed it was sold to Mrs. Flanagan, who has been a resident of Henderson Point, during the early part of the week. The demand continues brisk.

—Mr. John Osoinach left Saturday night for Memphis, Tenn., where he is visiting his sons, Messrs. Henry W. and A. J., and their respective families. He is enjoying the sights and activities of Memphis and will remain indefinitely. During his absence his business, the Bay Mercantile Company, is in active charge of his assistant executive, Mr. Clarence W. Osoinach.

—Mr. R. W. Taylor is a frequent visitor from Picaune to his family who are summering here with relatives. Mr. Taylor recently built an ice manufactory at Picaune, which is in full blast and doing a splendid business locally and near-by points. Such a plant fills the long-felt want and the surprising part is that it was not supplied before this. However, much of the success is due to the business activity and energy of Mr. Taylor.

—H. G. Loefer, formerly of Kiln, but who has been spending the past year at Wisner, Louisiana, has returned to Bay St. Louis and will resume his position with the Edwards Hines Yellow Pine Trustees at Kiln. Mr. Loefer is well-known and generally esteemed and The Echo is glad to note his return to this section.

—Prof. Gaspard Maurigi is justly proud of the success his orchestra is meeting with. Recently the band filled an engagement at Lake Shore and so successfully was the engagement filled and the satisfaction afforded to all concerned, that a return engagement is assured. The orchestra has been playing for the A. & G. theatre audiences, much to their delight and satisfaction. Prof. Maurigi is a musician of talent and ability.

—Mr. F. C. Bordages, Sr., is a frequent visitor to Clermont Harbor, where he reports unusual activity. The big hotel there is crowded with guests and there are many cottagers this summer. Many new buildings have gone up of late and the demand for building lots, says Mr. Bordages, is brisk. He represents the company owning the original town lots and handles many sales. The matter of building a direct roadway between Bay St. Louis and Clermont Harbor along the railroad track is agitated from time to time, and it is hoped the county will see its way clear to soon open up the desired avenue.

—The Maccabee Band members are to be complimented in their noted improvement of late. They have made splendid progress and today their organization and their music is one of the best in the State. The members have striven and studied until today they are in the front rank, and the music they discourse is always a source of much pleasure. The Echo notes that they have given their music on every occasion, and to every cause without price, irrespective of what benefit. This is to be commended; a spirit that is big. In return we know that they have the appreciation of the community, and we hope when the real favors and pay go to a band that the Maccabees will not be forgotten.

DR. J. H. SPENCE,

DENTIST.

Office: Ger Building, Main St.

—The Bay St. Louis Cafe wishes to announce that they will deliver all meals ordered from their cafe. Week-day meals, 50c; Sunday, 75c.

—Dr. A. P. Smith and family left Friday morning for Brookhaven, Miss., to visit the Doctor's mother. The trip was made from Bay St. Louis to Hattiesburg by auto thence by rail.

—During the summer months many visitors have become subscribers to The Echo. Before leaving and returning home these subscribers will telephone or send their change of address in to this office.

—No one will fail to attend the Hoo-Boo-Loo Festival at St. Stanislaus College auditorium tonight and tomorrow night. An unusually attractive program has been prepared. Nothing like it ever attempted heretofore.

—With R. C. Block as grand-marshal and A. O. Bordelon, as his chief aide the Hoo-Boo-Loo parade Thursday afternoon, made up of decorated automobiles, was one of the largest yet seen here, led by the famous Maccabee Band. The Echo appreciates the compliment of a halt of the parade and serenade in front of The Echo building.

—G. Theatre, next Thursday night, minor improvements in a community oftines stand for the most and contribute largely to the civic betterment. The concrete block and fence, with cement trimmings, just completed along the front yard line of the W. L. Bourgeois residence, in Main street, is both handsome and attractive, to say nothing of the artistic and substantial character of the work. This was done by Mr. Wilbur Driver, who designed and did the work in that fashion which stamps it with so much favor.

—Mr. Edw. C. Gardebled, who left here some months since for the treatment of his eyes, and who had practically lost his sight, is expected home today. His sight has been partially restored and to the extent that he can see and able to get out and about. Mr. Gardebled, who is one of our best known and prominent citizens, has many friends who will learn of the good news with interest. He is a brother of the late Mayor Gardebled, is well connected, and for many years was a pharmacist and druggist actively engaged. He has been at the U. S. Marine hospital under treatment.

—Financial returns of the recent benefit dance for the Catherine Circle at New Orleans, given in this city last week under the auspices of Mrs. Ferrandou and a number of lady and gentlemen assistants, bring the net results to over $175.00. Considering the affair was somewhat of a private nature, not patronized by the general public, but more so by friends and a select few, the amount netted is indeed very handsome and speaks well for all concerned.

—Mrs. E. J. Leonard is to be complimented and congratulated on the success which marked the card party recently given at her home on the beach front for the benefit of the Episcopal church. The amount netted is $125.00, and this for an afternoon card party is remarkable. Friends of the cause and of Mrs. Leonard rallied promptly and with wide open purses.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS BUILDING SOLD.

Purchased by A. A. Kergosien and R. N. Blaize Who Will Establish "K-B" Drug Business, To Open by October 1st.

Local Council Knights of Columbus of the building on, or before September 15th, and immediately a force of carpenters, painters and others will begin the work of remodeling and improving the building in order for a first-class drug store, with all the different departments and adjuncts that go with such a modern business. The gentlemen have extensive plans and purpose to gradually put them into execution as time will permit. Many innovations are planned. The interior of the building will be made attractive and inviting, so say Messrs. Kergosien & Blaize.

—Just when the new store will be open and ready for business," said one of the gentlemen this morning, "is hard to say but we ought to be ready for business on or about October 1st. We propose to give a service and system of delivery never heretofore attempted."

Here's wishing the "K-B" drug store success.

PASSING AWAY OF MRS. ANNIE

QUINTINI.

A Native of Ireland But Resident of Bay St. Louis For Many Years—Her Demise Deeply Regretted.

There passed away in this city at her home in Gainesville road Friday morning at 2 o'clock, Mrs. Annie O'Neil Quintini, widow, of August Quintini, resident of this city for many years.

Mrs. Quintini was a native of County Louth, Ireland, and on last Monday, August 15th, was 64 years of age. She had been ill for some time, and a few days since her illness became severe and her condition grew worse until death released her from its tenement of clay, and her soul was wafted heavenward. She was a devout Catholic and received the last sacrament of her church before passing away.

The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the late residence and was largely attended. The remains were taken to the church of Our Lady of the Gulf, where the last rites were held, thence to St. Mary's cemetery to the keeping of Mother earth.

There were many floral tributes, a mute, but sincere testimony of the esteem in which the deceased was held by all who knew her.

Mrs. Quintini was known for her good and kind heart, and no one was ever known to have been turned away from her door in time of want and distress. Her life was one of golden deeds, a rich heritage indeed to have left to her children, and a store of gems for her crown in heaven.

Mrs. Quintini is survived by one daughter, Marie, wife of Mr. Claud Monti, and three sons, Frank, Thomas and Ernest and several grandchildren.

To these the sympathy of the community is extended. Only time will assuage their grief, but the memory of this good mother and of this grand and noble woman will always live in the hearts and minds of those who knew and loved her. To them her memory will ever remain a thought of today. All die in the flesh but a spirit like this lives on.

CITY SCHOOLS TO REOPEN SEPT. 5

BOTH WHITE AND COLORED SCHOOLS OF CITY WILL REOPEN FOR 1921-22 SESSION ON LABOR DAY, FIRST MONDAY IN SEPT.—PROF. COWAN TO AGAIN PRESIDE—OUTLOOK FOR BIG ATTENDANCE NEXT SESSION FAVORABLE.

Monday, September 5th, has been officially announced as the day for the reopening of the City schools, white and colored. This announcement is given out officially by Geo. J. Toca, secretary of the City School Board, and from the number of inquiries from parents and others it is evident the attendance is going to be unusually large. Every mother, father, guardian wants their charge to be at school, and it is well that every patron see that the aforesaid charge reports on the first day, Monday, September 5th.

Prof. S. C. Cowan, who, last session, presided over the destinies of the Central High School, will again be at the same post, and it is expected he will be in time from his home in Oklahoma to be here a few days prior to the opening. His assistants for

THE CENTRAL SCHOOL selected by the School Board are as follows:

Mrs. W. H. Sylvester, Miss Cora Lee Pearson, of Conehatta, Miss, Miss Celine Fayard, Miss Clara Kergosien.

R. W. WEBB SCHOOL.

Miss Della Hymel, principal; Miss Mae Colson, Miss Nina Ladner.

R. W. TAYLOR SCHOOL.

Miss Rita Breath, principal; Miss Ella Fayard, assistant.

THE YALINA C. JONES

HIGH SCHOOL.

G. W. Brown, principal; Mrs. M. L. Brown, Misses Whitfield, Inez Labat, Celestine Barabino. Acting on the recommendation of G. W. Brown so The Echo is officially informed from the Board, Miss Herdon's position will be filled before the school session begins.

Practically all of the teachers of last year have been reappointed. Miss Pearson, the new teacher, is a college graduate and will come Bay St. Louis High School well recommended.

The sale of authorized school books this year will be handled by W. L. Bourgeois, adjoining the post-office, in Main street, instead of at local drug stores as has been the custom here for many years. The pupils are urged to procure their books early.

Milk drinks have no equal. They are bound to be popular if they are given only half a chance.

AT A. & G. THEATRE NEXT WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

"Earthbound," Powerful Drama From the Story of Basil King Will Be Presented.

"Earthbound," taken from the story of the famous author, Basil King, which will be shown at the A. & G. Theatre, next Wednesday night, is described as being in many respects the most remarkable film ever produced both in theme and artistic workmanship. An entire year of constant work, during which more than 27 miles of film were taken, was devoted to the making of this picture in the Goldwyn studios at Culver City, California. The story is that of the powerful influence of a woman's charms, which blazes the lives of two families; culminates in murder and follows its victim even into the life beyond.

"Earthbound," made a tremendous impression at its advance showings at legitimate theatres, both in New York and Chicago, where it was hailed as the greatest forward step in the development of screen art. An all-star cast of players includes Wyndham Standing, Mahlon Hamilton, Flora Revalles, Naomi Childers, Lawson Butt, Alec B. Francis, Billie Cotton and Kate Lester.

Admission 11 and 22 cents.

Fordson TRACTOR

"The Tractor will enable the farmer to work fewer hours in the day, giving him more time to enjoy life. I believe the tractor will make farming what it ought to be—the most pleasant, the most healthful, the most profitable business on earth!"

This tractor has done much—very much—in bringing true Mr. Ford's prophecy; for in it is a machine which has harnessed one of the most dependable, efficient, adaptable, economical sources of power in the world—a machine that saves from thirty to fifty per cent of the farmer's time—a machine which many farmers claim plows, harrows or drills as much ground in the same time as four, six or even eight horses. And more—a machine that takes care of every power job on the farm.

Call and let's talk it over, or telephone or drop us a card and we will bring the facts to you.
